

Prayer of Married Couples

God the One Holy Trinity,
Help us understand that you not only are loving,
But that you are love itself.
Help us to love as you love.

Enable us to protect our poverty
So that we are always reminded
That without each other something is lacking and missing,
And thereby we will remember that we are nothing without you.

Enable us to feel our dependence
So that we lose the desire for independence from each other,
And thereby become gradually more dependent upon you.

Enable us to grow in humility
So that we lose concern about our own self
And thereby focus more on each other and on you.

Through the example of the Poverty, dependence, and humility shown by Christ Incarnate,
Allow us to grow in communion with each other
As you the Blessed Trinity are in communion with yourself
And you are in communion with us.

Amen.
